

Coach Hathaway's Running South September 22, 2018 Southport High

Coach Hathaway's Running South is a fun event open to all ages and abilities. The event includes: Health Fair, 10K, 5K, 1 mile, and ¼ mile Kiddie Romp to be held on Saturday, September 22, 2018 at Southport High School. The proceeds raised from Coach Hathaway's Running South will allow the Perry Township Education Foundation (PTEF) to provide grants to teachers and administrators in Perry Township Schools for innovative and creative educational opportunities. Since 1994, PTEF has awarded over $1.2 million in grants to Perry Township Schools.

The late Tom Hathaway ran 131 marathons, many half-marathons, and countless other races. At age 79, he was the oldest finisher at the inaugural Running South event. He accomplished the feat of running one marathon in each state-gaining him entry into the 50 States Marathon Club. He would often win his age group. Tom taught and coached cross-country and track in Perry Township Schools for 44 years, most of that time at Southport High School. He also coached at the University of Indianapolis and KLA's Training Programs. PTEF will also award a scholarship to a Perry Township graduate that will attend the University of Indianapolis.
